

OLCOTT DISMISSES ANOTHER KLANSMAN

BONUS MUST WAIT TARIFF ACTION EDICT

Senate Republicans Vote Against Giving Soldier Relief Legislation Any Preference.

Washington, June 19.—Senate republicans in conference today voted 30 to 9 against laying aside the tariff bill to consider the soldiers' bonus.

A resolution favoring final disposition of both the tariff bill and the bonus measure at this session and before any recess then was adopted 27 to 11. The bonus measure would be made the unfinished business after the final vote on the tariff.

Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, after learning of the action of the republican conference, said a move to bring up the bonus would be made in the senate after the passage of the pending naval appropriation bill.

McCumber Defeated.

Chairman McCumber of the finance committee, who has charge of both pieces of legislation, made a final effort to put the bonus ahead, but his motion mustered only 9 votes. He also was author of the resolution proposing final disposition of the tariff with the bonus then to be made the unfinished business of the senate. This resolution was opposed by 11 republicans, counted as opponents of the adjusted compensation measure.

A number of republican senators, including Johnson of California and La Follette of Wisconsin, who favor speedy action on the bonus, absented themselves from the conference. A number of democratic senators also desire early disposition of the bonus and it may be that a move will be made on the floor to override the program of the republicans, which has the approval of President Harding.

HUGHES PLEADS FOR AWAKENED PUBLIC OPINION

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 19.—A plea for a "new sense of civic responsibility in matters of international concern" in the United States as the most certain basis of promoting peace in the world, was made here today by Secretary Hughes at the commencement exercises of the University of Michigan.

"Sound public opinion," was most necessary to support the nation's peaceful diplomatic aims," he said.

"It must frown upon the constant efforts to create suspicion, distrust and hatred," he continued. "There can be no assurance of peace, and few of the necessary and just settlements which make for peace, in a world of hate."

"It should be recognized that what is more necessary than formulas is a new sense of civic responsibility in matters of international concern. The chief enemies of peace are those who constantly indulge in the abuse of foreign peoples and their governments, who asperse their motives and visit them with ridicule and insult."

"The principal difficulties at this time is the conduct of foreign affairs is not with methods and inflammatory discussions in which some of our citizens and certain portions of the press permit themselves to indulge."

"If there is to be less reticence in diplomacy, there must be, if not a greater reticence, at least a keener sense of responsibility in the discussion of international questions. Open diplomacy and blatant and injudicious utterances will not go well together. The corrective can only be found in that state of the public mind which will unsparringly condemn and ostracize those who by their base imputations imperil our friendly relations with other nations."

Tompkins, grand master of the grand lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of New York state, in a statement made public today, denounced the Ku Klux Klan and warned member of the Masonic fraternity that they cannot be both Masons and members of the Ku Klux Klan.

The California, Connecticut and Massachusetts grand masters recently issued similar announcements.

Forces of Sun Yat Sen Concentrate Efforts on Defeat of Wu Army

Peking, June 19.—(By Associated Press.)—The grasp of Admiral Pei Fu on the disturbed situation in China apparently was stronger today than at any time since his defeat of Chang Tso Lin, rebel super-Tuchun of Manchuria, at the gates of Peking, first, brought him into prominence as a prospective "strong man of China."

Dr. Sun Yat Sen, principal opponent of the Peking government, in whose behalf Wu has been exercising his admittedly military genius has fled from Canton where the Southern Chinese government he headed is overthrown and Chen Chin Ming, who is favorable to Wu, is in control.

Armistice in North.

In the north the leaders of Wu's army on the South Manchurian front and the head of forces of Chang Tso-Tin in that region have concluded a definite armistice, according to advices from Chingwang-tao, and already Chang's Fengtien troops are withdrawing toward Mukden. The armistice, according to all available information here, resulted from a meeting of the two commanders aboard a British vessel at Chingwang-tao last Friday.

But Wu still faces a determined and, he has said, fanatic enemy in the south. Sun, at last reports an exile from his own capital and seeking safety aboard a gunboat in the Canton river, still is determined to fight.

Ships Shell Position.

The boats, under Sun's leadership, have shelled a part of Canton. The dispatches report the casualties as few because of the flight of many of the inhabitants. Sun, moreover, is waiting for the remnants of his defeated armies to rally so that he may attempt the recapture of Canton. There has been a battle at Kiangsu, 150 miles from Nanchang, capital of Kiangsi, and there have been clashes elsewhere in that province which Sun has been anxious to conquer to supply himself with a means of access to the valley of the Yang Tse.

Wu's 12,000 troops at Nanchang apparently are standing fast before Sun's beleaguering forces, and Chen Chung-Ming at Canton is showing no disposition to accede to Sun's representations for a reconciliation between them. Chen, formerly one of Sun's chief military leaders, recently agreed to the proposal of Wu that the old China parliament be convoked to supply the country with a constitutional government.

OREGON LOSES BY UNMERGER SAYS SPROULE

Elimination of Espee Central Over Central Pacific Dangerous To All Local Points, Claim.

William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific company, today issued the following statement, "Where is Oregon's interest," explaining how this state would be affected by the threatened separation of Central Pacific and Southern Pacific properties which have been under a single control since 1870:

"With reference to desire of the Union Pacific to acquire the Central Pacific, it may fairly be set down by the people of Oregon as the intention of government that public interest shall prevail over the self-interest of either of the roads concerned. The public is interested in the best railway service, given with the greatest convenience to them. Let us see what this means for western and southern Oregon, served by Southern Pacific.

Traffic Is Coastal.

"1.—That the business of Oregon is not as a primary matter east and west bound is shown by the fact that in 1921 only 18 per cent of the car the Southern Pacific handled in Oregon were given that company by shippers for delivery to railroad lines east of Portland for destinations beyond. This is less than one-fifth of the business.

"In the reverse direction the cars received by the Southern Pacific at Portland from its rail connections were but 21 per cent. This is slightly over one-fifth of the business.

"The markets for so large a portion of the products of western and southern Oregon are in the Pacific coast group of states, particularly California and those markets the people of Oregon now reach through a single carrier without interruption or complications.

Would Split System.

"2.—If the Southern Pacific lines be torn asunder, then Tehama, California, would be the point nearest to the Oregon boundary. Tehama is 191 miles away. Thus the Southern Pacific with

TUMALO BONDS ARE APPROVED

Approval of the sale of the $550,000 issue of Tumalo irrigation district bonds to the United Construction company was given by the state irrigation securities commission Saturday when the bond buyers came in with an offer of 85 cents on the dollar as against the offer of 83 1/2 which the commission turned down Friday.

Tentative approval of the contract for the improvement of the project was also given by the commission, the final approval being withheld pending the fulfillment of certain technical requirements set forth by the commission.

The improvements contemplated under the contract includes the construction of a dam for storage purposes at Crescent lake and a diversion dam below the city of Bend by which the waters of the Deschutes river will be diverted to the Tumalo district.

SUN YET SEN'S DEFEAT COMPLETE IS REPORT

Peking, June 19.—(By Associated Press.)—Two significant developments today pointed to a reunited China in the near future. One was found in official advices from Canton that Sun Yat Sen's downfall was completed. The other came in a telegram from the three provinces of Manchuria, where Chang Tso Lin has attempted to establish a separate empire, that three provinces were ready to join the United China movement.

REMEDY FOR UNMERGER IS CONSIDERED

Oregon Public Service Board Not Represented At Conference Held In San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., June 19.—A number of propositions to meet the emergency created by the United States supreme court decision separating the Southern Pacific and Central Pacific railroad systems were presented at a meeting today of the representatives of public utility commissions from western states, called to find a possible remedy for the situation.

The Oregon railroad commission sent a telegram in which it declined to enter the conference "because Oregon is geographically divided on the situation." Western and southern Oregon were opposed to the separation, the message said, while Portland and eastern Oregon were in favor of it.

Richard Sachse, chief engineer of the California railroad commission, outlined the proposed Ripley plan making the Central Pacific and the Union Pacific one system and also the interstate commerce commission plan calling for a grouping of lines in conformity with transportation needs.

Under the transportation act the interstate commerce commission can make necessary grouping without court action or the possibility of court review, it was held by speakers at the meeting, and under this act the present unification of the Southern and Central Pacific systems could remain, if proven to be vital to the public need.

Portland, Or., June 19.—The longshoremen's union, on strike here the last two months, today through authorized representatives sent a letter to Mayor George L. Baker asking for a conference with the water front employers, agreeing to accept the wage scale formulated by the state conciliation board, and setting forth the following proposals regarding the controverted hiring hall issue:

"The waterfront employers to exercise the option of hiring such men as they desire and the list system heretofore in vogue to be abolished by the longshoremen."

"The waterfront employers to be compelled to deal directly with union headquarters but, if desired, through the clearing house or bureau to be maintained in an uptown office building under neutral management and the expense to be borne jointly: the functions of such bureau to be the transmission of orders for workers, to union headquarters thereby obviating direct dealings with said union."

His wife came as far as Salt Lake, where she will await the return of the party, who are going as far south as Los Angeles. Mr. Bixby and the Daveys had not met for over 40 years, hence the Salem visit has been one of great pleasure all around. The two families viewed the beauties of the city and surrounding country yesterday afternoon and the visitors are delighted with this part of the world. They will board the Shasta limited this afternoon for their southward journey. Mr. Bixby's business for forty years has been spreading joy and sunshine in the press and on rostrum through a philosophic humor for which he has international fame. ### STATE RESTS IN TRIAL OF SMALL AFTER 9 WEEKS

Waukegan, Ill., June 19.—(By Associated Press.)—The prosecution today rested its case against Governor Len Small, on trial for conspiracy to defraud the state of public moneys during his tenure of office as state treasurer, after nine weeks of testimony.

Attorneys for the governor immediately announced that they would offer no evidence, and rested their case upon the presentation of prosecution. The move was so much of a surprise that a recess was necessary to allow the prosecution time to prepare its closing arguments. Three weeks, it had been anticipated, would be required for the rebuttal testimony.

At the afternoon session the defense moved that a large part of the state's evidence be stricken from the record. The state asked for a recess to study the motion before starting arguments on it. One count of the motion of the defense moves that all the state's evidence be stricken out, another challenge is 250 of the 800 or more state exhibits, while others attack every important part of the prosecution's testimony.

Governor Small this afternoon issued the following statement: "They have not proven a single dishonest act against me, or anything that is in violation of law. And their own testimony showed that every dollar deposited was returned to the state treasury in full and that I turned in twice as much interest as any of my predecessors."

ELLSWORTH IS DISCHARGED BY GOVERNOR

Place on Board of Chiropractic Examiners Goes to Brown

FOR SERVICE GOOD

Admitted Member of Ku Klux Is Second to Lose Official Head in Executive Clean-up.

The head of another alleged Klansman fell under the executive as this morning.

The removal of Dr. R. C. Ellsworth of Pendleton as "an acknowledged member of the Ku Klux Klan," as a member of the state board of chiropractic examiners was announced by Governor Olcott this morning "for the good of the service" and Dr. D. T. Brown of The Dalles was appointed to fill the vacancy.

"As you are an acknowledged member of the Ku Klux Klan this is to advise you that you are hereby removed as a member of the state board of chiropractic examiners and your successor will be appointed forthwith," the governor has written to Ellsworth. "This action is taken under the provisions of section No. 4645, Oregon laws, and is for the good of the service."

The governor's move to purge the state payroll of Klansmen was started immediately after the primary election when G. E. Gates of Medford was removed as a member of the state fair board "for the good of the service." Gates being an avowed member of the Klan. It was intimated at that time that the removal of Gates was only the first of several Klansmen whose official heads could be expected to fall under the sweep of the executive ax.

HALL MUST FILE PROTEST BEFORE FRIDAY OR LOSE

The reports, rumors and counter-rumors surrounding the probable action of Charles Hall, defeated candidate for the republican gubernatorial nomination, in the matter of whether or not he will contest the nomination of Ben W. Olcott will be definitely decided before the end of the week.

By the terms of the Oregon election laws Hall must file his contest by midnight Friday if he is not content to abide by the results of the election as proclaimed by Governor Olcott last week. The statutes provided that a defeated candidate must file his demand for a recount within five days after his successful opponent has accepted the nomination, or forever hold his peace.

Governor Olcott filed his official acceptance of the nomination with Secretary of State Koser Saturday afternoon. A statement issued by Hall Saturday evening declared that the committee handling his campaign had discovered several alleged irregularities in the primary balloting and that he would probably demand a recount.
